r u kiddin? The Pew Research Center says in a new study that political polls that skip people who use only cell phones may be skewed because cell-only users typically are younger and more likely to be supporters of Democrat Barack Obama.

At least that's what Pew thinks it learned, because the kids in the survey sent text messages that read: "dOOd, IMHO u WOOF YBS wen wOOt & BHO's top guvment dawg." (Translation available at netlingo.com.)
