The screenshot shows the homepage of "Parents. The Anti-Drug." in a Microsoft Internet Explorer browser window. The browser title is "Parents. The Anti-Drug. - Microsoft Internet Explorer". The website has a blue header with the logo "PARENTS. THE ANTI-DRUG." and navigation links for "SPANISH", "CHINESE", "FILIPINO", "KOREAN", and "VIETNAMESE". Below the header is a "DRUG INFORMATION" section with a dropdown menu "Select a Drug" and a "SEARCH" box "Enter keyword(s)". A yellow navigation bar contains links: "Drug Information", "Advice", "News", "Is Your Teen Using?", "Community", "Get Involved", and "Partners". Below this is a "GET the PARENTING TIPS NEWSLETTER" section with an "Enter an email address" field. The main content area is divided into two columns. The left column features a large image of a brain with red dots and a section titled "POT AND THE TEEN BRAIN" with subtext "Depression, Suicidal Thoughts, Schizophrenia." and links for "read more", "advice on this topic", and "past features". Below this are three columns: "PARENTS@WORK" (with a photo of a man and a woman), "TEACHER'S GUIDE" (with a photo of a man pointing at a whiteboard), and "FAITH ACTIVITES" (with a photo of a woman). The right column has a "WHAT'S INSIDE" section with two articles: "The Parent Chronicles: Part 3" and "Pot and the Brain". Below that is an "ADVICE & INFORMATION" section with links for "Updated Privacy Policy!", "Net Lingo", and "Pharming Parties". At the bottom, there is a "Subscribe to the Parenting 'Tips' Newsletter" section.
